

Existing law, relative to the boards of commissioners of fire protection districts, generally provides for five members who are appointed to staggered, two-year terms. New law provides that the board of commissioners of Caddo Parish Fire District No. One shall have seven members. Further provides that the Caddo Parish governing authority shall appoint the two additional members and set their initial terms.

Effective August 15, 2011.

(Amends R.S. 40:1496(B)(5))