DIGEST

Proposed law requires each city, parish, and other local public school board to provide free transportation to any student who is 22 years of age or younger and attending a technical college campus, that is part of the La. Community and Technical College System, within the jurisdictional boundaries of the local board. Provides that if the closest technical college campus is located outside the jurisdictional boundaries of the local school board, proposed law requires coordination with neighboring boards to facilitate transportation to the technical college campus.

Proposed law allows BESE and the Board of Supervisors of Community and Technical Colleges to adopt rules in accordance with the APA to implement provisions of proposed law.

Effective August 1, 2012
