
The original instrument and the following digest, which constitutes no part of the legislative instrument, were prepared by Alden A. Clement, Jr.

DIGEST

Proposed law prohibits the issuance of a subpoena or court order that requires a judge or his representative to appear or testify in any civil, criminal, or juvenile matter, including pretrial discovery or administrative hearing, without a contradictory hearing to determine if the information is protected from disclosure by the judicial deliberative process privilege.

Proposed law provides the following requirements to be determined in the contradictory hearing:

1. The information sought is essential to the case of the party seeking the information and is not merely peripheral, cumulative, or speculative.
2. The purpose of seeking the information is not to harass the judge, nor for the mere purpose of seeking recusal of the judge.
3. With respect to a subpoena, the subpoena lists the information sought with particularity, is reasonably limited as to subject matter and period of time, and gives timely notice.
4. There is no practical alternative means of obtaining the information.

Proposed law provides that failure to object timely to a party's non-compliance with the provisions of proposed law constitutes a waiver of the procedural protections but does not constitute a waiver of any privilege.

Proposed law provides that the procedural protections afforded by proposed law extend to any judge of any court provided for by Article V of the La. Constitution and to any commissioner or special master of such court.

Effective upon signature of the governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.

(Adds C.E. Art. 519)