Dept./Agy.: Education		Analyst: Mary Kathryn Drago
Subject: American History

CURRICULA OR NO IMPACT EX See Note Page 1 of 1
Requires instruction on the Founding Principles of the U.S. to be integrated into the high school American history course

The proposed legislation requires the governing authority of each public school offering a course in American history as a prerequisite to graduation to integrate instruction regarding the Founding Principles of the United States of America into the course. The instruction is required to include 1) the Creator-endowed inalienable rights of the people, 2) structure of government, separation of powers with checks and balances, 3) frequent and free elections in a representative government, 4) rule of law, 5) equal justice under the law, 6) private property rights, 7) federalism, 8) due process, 9) individual rights as set forth in the Bill of Rights, and 10) individual responsibility. Charter schools are not exempt from providing such instruction in American history.
