DIGEST

Peterson (SB 536)

Present law provides that when the court suspends the imposition or execution of sentence and places the child or his parent or both on supervised probation or grants the child supervised parole, and the probationer or parolee is to be supervised by the DPS&C or any other agency, the court shall order payment, as a condition of probation or parole, of a monthly supervision fee.

Present law provides that the supervision fee imposed shall be not less than $10 nor more than $100 per month and shall be payable to the department or other supervising agency to defray the costs of supervision.

Present law provides that these funds are only to supplement the level of funds that would ordinarily be available from regular state or other appropriations.

Proposed law retains present law but provides that the supervision fee shall be not less than $10, and not more than $50.

Effective August 1, 2012.

(Amends Ch.C. Art. 901.1(A))
