Creates the crime of reckless discharge of a firearm in a residential area

Proposed legislation provides that reckless discharge of a firearm on residential property in unincorporated areas of the parish is the reckless or criminally negligent discharge of a firearm on or within 1,000 feet of any residential property and law defines "firearm", "reckless or criminally negligent", and "residential".

Proposed legislation provides the following penalties for first offense as a fine of not more than $250; and for second or subsequent offense as a fine of not more than $500.
