

(KEYWORD, SUMMARY, AND DIGEST as amended by Senate committee amendments)

CIVIL/PLEADINGS. Provides with respect to facsimile filings

-----
Present law provides that any paper in a civil action may be filed with the court by facsimile transmission, and that such filing shall be deemed complete at the time that the facsimile transmission is received and a receipt of transmission has been transmitted to the sender by the clerk of court.

Present law requires the party filing the document to forward, within five days, the following to the clerk: (1) the original signed document; (2) the applicable filing fee, if any; and (3) a transmission fee of $5.

Proposed law changes the time period within which a party shall file an original with the court from five days to seven days.

(Amends R.S. 13:850(B)(intro. para.))

Summary of Amendments Adopted by House

Committee Amendments Proposed by House Committee on Civil Law and Procedure to the original bill.

1. Changed the time period within which a party shall submit an original of a facsimile filed pleading from within five days to seven days of receipt by the clerk.
2. Required a party who files a subsequent pleading by facsimile to file the original with the clerk within seven days or at his next court appearance in the suit, whichever is earlier.

Summary of Amendments Adopted by Senate

Committee Amendments Proposed by Senate Committee on Judiciary A to the reengrossed bill

1. Deleted language requiring party who files a subsequent pleading by facsimile to file the original with the clerk within seven days or at his next court appearance in the suit, whichever is earlier.