16 delinquency, the obligor may file a written objection with the commission requesting 17 an administrative hearing to determine whether he is in compliance with the cited 18 overpayment obligation.

19 B. If the obligor does not timely file a written objection or enter into a 20 written agreement with the commission to make periodic payments on an 21 overpayment, the commission shall certify that the obligor is noncompliant to the 22 licensing authority for license suspension.

23 §1749.4. Administrative hearing

24 Upon receipt of a timely written objection, the commission shall conduct an 25 administrative hearing in accordance with the procedures provided in R.S. 23:1629.
26 The hearing may be conducted by telephone or other electronic media. The sole 27 issue at the administrative hearing shall be whether the obligor is in compliance with 28 his obligation to repay an overpayment or whether the obligor has failed to make 29 required repayment for more than ninety days. The obligor may appeal the decision

1 issued by judicial review in accordance with the procedures provided in R.S.
2 23:1634.

3 §1749.5. Certification of noncompliance

4 The commission may certify electronically to the licensing authority that a 5 licensee is not in compliance with an overpayment obligation in the event of any of 6 the following:

7 (1) The obligor has not timely filed an objection to the notice of 8 overpayment delinquency and more than twenty days have passed after service of the 9 notice of overpayment delinquency.

10 (2) The obligor has timely filed an objection to the notice of overpayment 11 delinquency and an adverse decision or order was issued after the administrative 12 hearing, rehearing, or judicial review and all legal delays have lapsed.

13 §1749.6. Suspension of license

14 A. Within thirty days after receipt of a certification of noncompliance from 15 the commission, the licensing authority shall suspend the license of all licensees 16 named therein.

17 B. The licensing authority shall specify a date of suspension, which date 18 shall be within thirty days from the licensing authority's receipt of the certification 19 of noncompliance.

20 §1749.7. Subsequent compliance with overpayment obligation; compliance releases

21 A. An obligor shall be considered to be in subsequent compliance with an 22 overpayment obligation when all of the following occur:

23 (1) The obligor is up to date with all overpayment obligations.

24 (2) All past-due overpayment obligations have been paid or if the obligor 25 agreed to a periodic payment schedule with the commission, the obligor has made 26 timely periodic payments in accordance with the terms of that agreement for at least 27 ninety days.

28 B. At the request of an obligor who is in subsequent compliance with 29 Subsection A of this Section, the commission shall electronically issue a compliance 30 release certificate indicating that the obligor is eligible to have his license reissued.

1           §1749.8. Reissuance of license

2                   The licensing authority shall issue, reissue, renew, or otherwise extend an 3           obligor's license, in accordance with any applicable reinstatement fees or applicable
4           rules, upon receipt of a certified copy of a compliance release from the commission.
