B. Zoning ordinances enacted by the governing authority of the parish and the acts of its zoning commission, board of adjustment, or zoning administrator shall be subject to judicial review on the grounds of abuse of discretion, unreasonable exercise of police powers, excessive use of the power as granted by this Subpart, or the denial of the right of due process.

C. The right of judicial review of a zoning ordinance shall not be limited by the provisions of this Subpart.

§4780.82. Uniform regulations within district

A. Within the district, the governing authority of the parish may regulate and restrict the erection, construction, alteration, or use of buildings, structures, or land.

§4780.83. Purpose of regulations

A. Regulations adopted pursuant to this Subpart shall be made in accordance with a comprehensive plan and designed to lessen congestion in the public streets, secure safety from fire, promote health and the general welfare, provide adequate light and air, avoid undue concentration of population, facilitate adequate transportation, water supply, sewerage, schools, and parks, and meet other public requirements.

B. Such regulations shall be made with reasonable consideration of the character of the district and its peculiar suitability for particular uses and with a view to conserving the values of buildings and encouraging the most appropriate use of land throughout the district.

§4780.84. Public hearing authorized; prohibited rezoning

A. The governing authority of the parish shall, in accordance with the comprehensive plan required by R.S. 33:4780.83, provide for the manner in which the regulations and restrictions shall be determined, established, enforced, and, from time to time, amended.

1 B. No regulations or restrictions shall become effective until after a public

20 parish, the zoning commission shall hold a public hearing. Notice of the time and 21 place of the hearing shall be made in accordance with the provisions of R.S.
22 33:4780.45.

23 of any ordinance or other regulation made pursuant to authority conferred by this
24 Subpart, the proper local authorities of the parish, in addition to other remedies, may 25 institute any appropriate action or proceedings to prevent such unlawful erection,
26 structural alteration, maintenance, or use; to restrain, correct, or abate such violation;
27 to prevent the occupancy of the building, structure, or land; or to prevent any illegal
28 act, conduct, business, or use in or about such premises.
