

Requests DOTD study the feasibility of tolls to complete I-49 South and to submit a written report of no later than December 13, 2012, to the Senate and House committees on transportation, highways, and public works.