* * *

I. If a member dies on or after January 1, 2007, while performing qualified military service as defined in 26 U.S.C. 414(u), eligibility for survivor benefits under this Section shall be determined as if the member had resumed employment and then terminated employment on account of death. The retirement system shall credit the member's qualified military service as service credit for vesting purposes and for eligibility computation purposes as though the member had resumed employment under the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act immediately prior to the member's death. The time spent by the member in qualified military service shall not count for benefit accrual purposes but shall count for eligibility purposes under this Section.
