

Existing law provides for the crime of discharging a firearm at a parade.

Prior law provided penalty provisions of imprisonment at hard labor for not less than five nor more than 10 years, with at least three years of the sentence imposed to be served without benefit of parole, probation, or suspension of sentence, and a fine of not more than $5,000.

New law increases the penalty from a maximum of 10 years to a maximum of 15 years and otherwise retains the provisions of prior law.

Effective August 1, 2012.
