

Existing law provides for procedures by which immovable property may be seized to satisfy a judgment.

Prior law required the sheriff to make three notices of the seizure proceedings before seizing the described property.

New law provides that no additional notice is required, including notice of rescheduled sale dates.

Effective August 1, 2012.

(Amends R.S. 13:3852(A); Adds R.S. 13:3852(C))