

Provides that whenever a death results from violence or under suspicious circumstances and a claim of self-defense is raised, the appropriate law enforcement agency and coroner must expeditiously conduct a full investigation of the death and all evidence of such investigation is to be preserved.

Effective upon signature of the governor (June 7, 2012).

(Adds R.S. 14:20.1)