

Requests the La. State Law Institute to study creating procedures that would enable a surety to take possession of collateral in certain circumstances and to report its findings to the legislature on or before Jan. 1, 2014.