

New law requires persons acting as appraisers for fire and extended coverage to register with the commissioner and pay an initial fee of $55.

New law provides that registrations shall expire one year from the anniversary date, at which time the registrant shall file a request for renewal and pay a renewal fee of $50.

New law grants the commissioner the authority to adopt rules and regulations to carry out and enforce new law.

Effective August 1, 2012.
