

Memorializes congress to take such actions as are necessary to repeal that portion of the federal Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, as amended by that act and the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act, which imposes a health insurance tax beginning in 2014.