

Existing law provides that the Dept. of Transportation and Development shall regulate the placement, erection, and maintenance of advertising signs on state-owned ferries. The department shall establish appropriate and reasonable fees for such advertisement in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act. New law provides for the department to also regulate the sponsorship of signs on state-owned ferries, as well as all rights-of-way and assets of the department.

New law provides that the rules and regulations promulgated by the department shall also be consistent with federal standards pursuant to Title 23 of the U.S. Code.

Effective upon signature of governor (May 29, 2013).

(Amends R.S. 48:274.2)