DIGEST

Claitor (SB 268)

Present law provides relative to civil liability for theft of goods from a merchant.

Present law provides that any person who unlawfully takes merchandise from a merchant's premises shall be liable to the merchant for the retail value of the merchandise taken, if not recovered in merchantable condition, plus damages of not less than $50 nor more than $500.

Present law also provides that its provisions shall not be construed to prohibit or limit any other cause of action which a merchant may have against a person who unlawfully takes merchandise from the merchant's premises.

Proposed law retains present law and adds that the provisions of the present law shall not be applicable when the merchandise taken has been recovered in merchantable condition or when restitution by the offender to the merchant has been ordered as a condition of sentence.

Effective August 1, 2014.

(Amends R.S. 9:2799.1)
