Present law provides that each person obtaining an initial real estate broker's license shall complete 45 post-license education hours within 180 days after the initial license date.

Proposed law provides that satisfactory completion of this course shall not require the passage of an examination on course contents.

Present law provides that each person obtaining an initial salesperson's license shall complete 45 post-license education hours within 180 days after the initial license date.

Proposed law provides that satisfactory completion shall not require the passage of an examination on course contents.

Present law provides that the La. Real Estate Commission shall promulgate rules and regulations necessary to implement continuing education requirements and may mandate the completion of courses in specific real estate-related subjects. Such rules and regulations may require passage of an examination in order to satisfy the continuing education requirement.

Proposed law retains present law, but prohibits the rules from requiring passage of an examination in order to satisfy the continuing education requirement.

(Amends R.S. 37:1437(C)(2)(c), (5)(b), and (6)(a)(ii))
