HB No. 461

Abstract: Repeals the drug-traffic loitering statute which was declared unconstitutional.

Prior law provided for the crime of drug-traffic loitering which provided that drug-traffic loitering is the remaining in a public place in a manner and under circumstances manifesting the purpose to engage in unlawful conduct in violation of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Law.

The Louisiana Supreme Court declared this statute unconstitutionally vague in State v. Muschkat, 96-2922 (La. 3/4/98), 706 So.2d 429.

Proposed law repeals this statute.
