

Designates the month of November each year as Culinary Careers Awareness Month in support of raising awareness of the culinary profession and the opportunities available to youth.