Provides relative to processing fees associated with reporting requirements for clerks of court

Present law requires that a processing fee of $5 for the clerk of court and $5 for the office of judicial administrator for the supreme court, not to exceed $10 in each suit, be taxed as costs of court in each suit for any information that is required by supreme court rule to be submitted by the clerk of court.

Proposed law deletes this provision of present law that requires that the court cost shall be paid only at the conclusion or dismissal of the suit.
