
DIGEST

The digest printed below was prepared by House Legislative Services. It constitutes no part of the legislative instrument. The keyword, one-liner, abstract, and digest do not constitute part of the law or proof or indicia of legislative intent. [R.S. 1:13(B) and 24:177(E)]

Amedee

SB No. 134

Present law (ethics code) provides that if a person fails to timely file a financial statement or if the person omits required information or if the Board of Ethics has reason to believe information is inaccurate, the board is required to notify the person of such by sending a notice of delinquency by certified mail.

Proposed law additionally authorizes of the use of service of process to send notices of delinquency and otherwise retains present law.

Present law establishes a $50 per day late fee with a maximum of $1,500 for persons required to file Tier 2.1 and 3 financial disclosure statements and a $100 per day late fee with a maximum of $2,500 for persons required to file Tier 2 financial disclosure statements. Present law provides for a $500 per day late filing fee for persons required to file Tier 1 financial disclosure statements.

Proposed law sets the maximum late fee for persons required to file Tier 1 personal financial disclosure reports at $12,500 and otherwise retains present law.

(Amends R.S. 42:1124.4(A)(1); Adds R.S. 42:1157(A)(4)(f))

Summary of Amendments Adopted by House

Committee Amendments Proposed by House Committee on House and Governmental Affairs to the engrossed bill.

1. Relative to the Board of Ethics sending notices of delinquency, changes requirement from sending notices via certified mail or private process server to sending the notices via certified mail or service of process.
2. Removes proposed requirement that notices of certain final decisions rendered by the Ethics Adjudicatory Board be sent via certified mail.