§863. Sanctions for false declaration; reinstatement fees; revocation of registration; review

A.(1) Except as provided herein below in this Section, when the secretary determines that a vehicle is not covered by security as required by this Chapter or that the owner or lessee has allowed the required security to lapse, he shall revoke the registration of the vehicle, and impound or cancel the vehicle's license plate.

(3)(a) Sanctions for a violation of Paragraph (1) of this Subsection shall be imposed until proof of required liability security is provided to the secretary and all reinstatement fees are paid. Sanctions for a violation of Paragraph (2) of this Subsection shall be imposed for a period of not less than six twelve months nor more than eighteen months. However, in no event shall these sanctions be removed until such time as proof of the required security is provided to the secretary along with all appropriate fees required by law, including a reinstatement fee of twenty-five fifty dollars per violation of Paragraph (1) of this Subsection if the vehicle was not covered by the required security for a period of one to thirty days, one hundred fifty dollars if the vehicle was not covered by required security for a period of thirty-one to ninety days, and two three hundred dollars if the vehicle was not covered by required security for a period in excess of ninety days. No reinstatement fee shall be imposed by the secretary if the vehicle was not covered by required security for a period of ten days or less and the insured surrenders the vehicle's license plate to the secretary within ten days. The reinstatement fees for violations of Paragraph (2) of this Subsection shall be as follows: twenty-five one hundred twenty-five dollars for a first violation, one two hundred dollars for a second violation, and two hundred four hundred dollars for a third or subsequent violation, provided the offenses occurred within a five-year period. The reinstatement fee shall not be owed for an alleged violation of Paragraph (2) of this Subsection when proof of the required security is provided to the secretary. If at the time of reinstatement a person has multiple violations, the total amount of fees to be paid shall not exceed five hundred dollars, including any administrative fees for persons under sixty-five years old.
