$2263. Exemption from execution
A. The right of a person to A. The right of a person to a pension, an annuity, or a retirement allowance, to the return of contributions, the pension, annuity, or retirement allowance itself, any optional benefit or any other right accrued or accruing to any person under the provisions of this Subpart Chapter, and the moneys monies in the various funds created by this Subpart Chapter are hereby exempt from any state or municipal tax and exempt from levy and sale, garnishment, attachment, or any other process whatsoever, except as provided in R.S. 11:292, and shall be unassignable except as in this Subpart Chapter specifically otherwise provided.

B. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, including Chapter 1 of Title XIII of the Louisiana Children's Code, any funds payable from the system shall be subject to the provisions of R.S. 11:292 only if a certified copy of a court order or judgment bearing the signature of the issuing court or administrative law judge is first provided to the system. If no certified copy of such order or judgment has been received by the system, the system shall continue to pay the entire amount of any benefit or refund of contributions to the former member, retiree, designated beneficiary, survivor benefit recipient, or the estate of a deceased member, as applicable. Until the system
