

Directs the DPS&C to study the feasibility and make recommendations relative to the expansion of the workforce development sentencing program to include additional judicial district reentry courts.