2 as an Associate Professor in the Department of Extension and International Education; and

3 WHEREAS, in 1980, Chancellor Williams was employed as Administrator of the 4 Cooperative Extension Program at Southern University and in 1991, he was asked to 5 co-chair a national task force that took an in-depth look at America's Cooperative Extension
6 System where he identified problems that needed to be addressed and recommended 7 solutions; and

8 WHEREAS, he was subsequently appointed Special Assistant for the United States 9 Department of Agriculture (USDA) Extension Administrator; and

10 WHEREAS, in just five months he was appointed by the Secretary of Agriculture as 11 the National Director of Extension where he supervised a staff of 207 professionals, and lead 12 the Cooperative Extension System involving 105 land-grant colleges and universities in all 13 50 states and the U. S. Territories; and 14 WHEREAS, he managed an appropriated budget of over $436 million, plus an 15 additional $30 million in special funding from other departments and agencies; and

16 WHEREAS, during the reorganization of government in 1994 and merger of the 17 Cooperative Extension Service and the Cooperative State Research Service, Chancellor
18 Williams was appointed Associate Administrator of the newly formed agency, Cooperative 19 State Research, Education, and Extension Service, with a budget of over $1 billion dollars; 20 and

21 WHEREAS, he held this position until he returned as the State Extension 22 Administrator at Southern University in July 1995; and

23 WHEREAS, Chancellor Williams is the first chancellor for the newly developed 24 Southern University Agricultural Research and Extension Center (SUAREC), the fifth 25 campus of the Southern University System and has been in this position for the last fourteen 26 years; and

27 WHEREAS, Chancellor Williams has served in several professional capacities on 28 numerous boards and commissions that focus on higher education and the educational 29 delivery system of land-grant colleges and universities; and

30 WHEREAS, he was also a consultant to the governments of Ethiopia, Sierra Leone,

1 and Republic of South Africa in the areas of extension administration, and adult, and 2 continuing education; and

3 WHEREAS, he has assisted in developing a Memorandum of Understanding between 4 the United States Department of Agriculture and the Republic of South Africa Ministry of 5 Agriculture, delineated needs and strategies for USDA agencies and U. S. Land-Grant 6 Universities to provide assistance to development efforts in South Africa; and

7 WHEREAS, Dr. Williams has also served as a delegation leader and representative 8 of scientists from Southern University, USDA, and other universities in the areas of urban 9 forestry and natural resources in the People's Republic of China, Honduras, and Liberia 10 where he assisted in developing strategies for university collaboration and exchange, along 11 with addressing concerns and issues facing the urban population; and

12 WHEREAS, Chancellor Williams has committed fifty years of his life to the students
13 of Southern University and the state of Louisiana while providing extraordinary leadership 14 both nationally and internationally in the area of Agricultural Research and Development.

15 THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Senate of the Legislature of Louisiana 16 does hereby commend and honor Chancellor Leodrey Williams on his retirement from 17 Southern University.

18 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this Resolution be transmitted to
