

1 WHEREAS, in 1993, Mr. Woodfox was indicted a second time and tried and 2 convicted in 1998; however, on Monday, June 8, 2015, a U.S. District Judge for the Middle 3 District of Louisiana, Judge James Brady, signed an order releasing Mr. Woodfox, 4 overturning the second conviction against him, and barring a third trial for the 1972 killing 5 from taking place (Id.); and

6 WHEREAS, on Tuesday, June 9, 2015, a federal appeals court temporarily blocked 7 the decision to release Albert Woodfox, the last of the "Angola 3" prisoners who is still 8 incarcerated after decades in solitary confinement; and

9 WHEREAS, in support of its ruling, the court cites the following five factors 10 justifying the release and barring retrial of Mr. Woodfox: (1) Mr. Woodfox's "age and poor 11 health", (2) Mr. Woodfox's "limited ability to present a defense at a third trial in light of the 12 unavailability of witnesses", (3) the court's "lack of confidence in the state to provide a fair 13 third trial", (4) the "prejudice done onto Mr. Woodfox by spending over forty-years in 14 solitary confinement", and (5) the fact that Mr. Woodfox has already been tried twice and 15 would otherwise face his third trial for a crime that occurred over forty years ago.

16 THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the House of Representatives of the 17 Legislature of Louisiana does hereby urge and request the attorney general to withdraw the 18 appeal to the United States Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals of Judge James Brady's ruling to 19 release Albert Woodfox and bar further prosecution of Mr. Woodfox for this offense.
