13	(31)(a) In the following cases where the marshals or constables have in their
14	possession for execution a writ of fieri facias, a writ of seizure and sale, or any
15	conservatory or other writ, under which property is or may be seized, the marshals
16	or constables shall be entitled to receive a fee or commission as in the case of a sale:
17	(i) When there has been an adjudication which is not completed as a result
18	of instructions given by the plaintiff in writ, or for any other reason.
19	(ii) When the plaintiff in writ receives cash or other consideration, or both,
20	pursuant to judgment rendered in suit in which the writ issued, without the necessity
21	of judicial sale.
22	(iii) When the suit in which the writ issued is discontinued by the plaintiff
23	in writ.
24	(iv) When, at the request of the plaintiff in writ, the writ is recalled or
25	dissolved or its further execution discontinued.
26	(v) When the parties in interest make an amicable settlement or compromise,
27	or enter into any other agreement, under the terms of which the writ is recalled or
28	dissolved or its further execution discontinued.
29	(b) The fee or commission provided for in this Paragraph shall be due and
30	payable under the circumstances above set forth even though there has only been a constructive seizure or where property seized under any of the writs hereinabove enumerated has been released on bond.

(c) In a case where there has been an amicable settlement by compromise or otherwise but no judgment rendered, the fee or commission shall be due and payable in solido by all parties to the compromise agreement or settlement who may be proceeded against by the marshals or constables by rule to be tried in a summary manner in term time or in vacation.

8 (d) In the event a defendant in seizure files for bankruptcy before a marshal's 9 sale and a stay order is issued canceling the sale, the plaintiff in the suit shall be 10 liable for all costs, other than commissions, incurred while the property was under 11 seizure.
