§1311. Sheriff, constables, and deputies; powers of peace officers; exemption from liability

A. The sheriff for the parish of Orleans and the constables of the First and Second City Courts of New Orleans and their his deputies; are hereby granted the powers of peace officers when carrying out the duties of the court, and are authorized to require incarceration of the subject involved in any of the city, parish or state prisons, precinct stations, or houses of detention in the parish of Orleans. They shall be exempt from liability for their actions in the exercise of this power in the same manner and fashion as liability is excluded generally for peace officers of this state and political subdivisions.

B. The constables of the First and Second City Courts of New Orleans and their deputies are hereby granted the powers of peace officers when acting under the direction and control of the constables and when carrying out the duties of the court, and are authorized to require incarceration of the subject involved in any of the city, parish or state prisons, precinct stations, or houses of detention in the parish of Orleans. They shall be exempt from liability for their actions in the exercise of this power in the same manner and fashion as

4	§2154. Powers of clerks and constables; constables of First and Second City
5	Courts of New Orleans
6	$\underline{\mathbf{A}}$. In civil matters, the clerks and constables of the city courts of New
7	Orleans have the same powers and duties as provided by the applicable provisions
8	of law for clerks and marshals of city courts generally.
9	B.(1) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the
10	constables of the First and Second City Courts of New Orleans and their
11	deputies, under the direction and control of the constables, shall have the same
12	power to make arrests in and upon the property within the jurisdiction of the 13	constables' offices and shall have all the powers of sheriffs as a peace officer in
14	all places and on all premises under the jurisdiction and control of the 15	constables, including execution of the mandates of the court.
16	(2) Any person arrested by a deputy of the constables shall be forthwith
17	surrendered or delivered to the sheriff of the parish of Orleans. However, this
18	shall in no way prevent the New Orleans city police or the sheriff of the parish
19	of Orleans or a deputy thereof from making arrests.
20	(3) The constables shall make rules and regulations for the conduct,
21	management, and control of their deputies and shall from time to time enlarge,
22	modify, or change such rules and regulations in their discretion.
