HB 338 Original

2016 Regular Session

Schroder

Abstract: Prohibits charter schools from requiring parents to disclose medical information or special education needs of a student as a condition of enrollment in the school.

Present law provides relative to charter school requirements, limitations, and prohibitions. Requires that charter school admission requirements include a system for admission decisions which precludes exclusion of students based on race, religion, gender, ethnicity, national origin, intelligence level, or identification as a student with an exceptionality as defined in present law. Proposed law retains present law.

Proposed law additionally prohibits a charter school from requiring a parent to disclose any medical information or special education needs for his child as a condition for enrolling the child in the school.
