HB 715 Original

2016 Regular Session

Adams

Abstract: Exempts wine products containing less than 7% alcohol from certain limitations on size of containers of beverages of high alcoholic content shipped and sold in Louisiana.

Present law provides for limitations on size of containers of beverages of high alcoholic content, and exempts cider products from container size restrictions.

Proposed law retains present law and adds that container and case restrictions shall not apply to cider products, or any other wine products containing less than 7% alcohol by volume, provided that the container and case restrictions comply with applicable federal law.

(Amends R.S. 26:351(9))
