Abstract: Provides a child support guideline schedule based on current economic and tax data.

Present law provides a child support guideline schedule which is based on economic estimates of child-rearing expenditures as a portion of household consumption.

Proposed law amends present law to incorporate the most recent economic estimates of child-rearing expenditures as a portion of household consumption.

Present law provides monthly basic child support obligations for combined adjusted monthly gross incomes beginning with $0 per month.

Proposed law amends the monthly basic child support obligations and utilizes $950 as the minimum adjusted monthly gross income.

Present law provides a ceiling of $30,000 for combined adjusted monthly gross income when calculating the basic child support obligation.

Proposed law amends present law by raising the ceiling from $30,000.00 to $40,000.00 for combined adjusted monthly gross income when calculating the basic child support obligation.
