Proposed law additionally requires the executive director or person holding the equivalent position of each state and statewide retirement system to file a Tier 2.1 personal financial statement and otherwise retains present law.

Present law (R.S. 42:1124.4) provides that after seven business days after notice of delinquency, if a person fails to file the statement, fails to provide omitted information, fails to correct inaccurate information, or fails to file a written answer prior to the deadline contained in the notice, he shall be subject to assessment of the penalties of $50 each day until the statement, omitted information, corrected information, or written answer is filed.

Further provides that a finding by the Board of Ethics that a person has willfully and knowingly failed to file a statement, willfully and knowingly failed to timely file a statement, willfully and knowingly omitted information from a statement, or willfully and knowingly provided inaccurate information in a statement shall subject the person to prosecution for a misdemeanor.
