HB 259 Engrossed

2016 Regular Session

Nancy Landry

Abstract: Requires the clerk or deputy clerk to provide notice in actions for child support, but provides that the failure to give notice does not invalidate an otherwise valid child support judgment.

Proposed law requires that notice be provided by the clerk or deputy clerk in child support actions.

Provides for the contents of the notice.

Proposed law provides that the required notice does not invalidate an otherwise valid child support judgment rendered.
