DIGEST 2016 Regular Session

Martiny

Present law provides for ameliorative penalty provisions and parole eligibility.

Proposed law retains present law and provides that a person committed to the Dept. of Public Safety and Corrections is eligible for parole consideration upon serving 15 years in actual custody if all of the following are applicable:

- (1) The person was not otherwise eligible for parole consideration at an earlier date.
- (2) The person was sentenced for an offense committed between 6/29/95 and 6/15/01.
- (3) The person is eligible for relief under present law relative to certain ameliorative penalty provisions, which includes those persons serving a life sentence with or without additional terms of years.

Effective August 1, 2016.
